

Kentucky Perinatal Quality Collaborative

KyPQC BULLETIN

The KyPQC is excited to host the Annual Meeting on August 10 in Lexington, KY. Registration will open soon!

Perinatal Mental Health

The Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health (AIM) has reintroduced the Perinatal Mental Health Conditions patient safety bundle to address mood, anxiety, and anxiety-related disorders that occur during pregnancy or within one year of delivery. Click the box below to learn more.

Learn More

Genuine Risk and Foal

The KyPQC will highlight the image of Kentucky Derby winner “Genuine Risk and Foal” photographed by Tony Leonard in 1993 at the KyPQC Annual Meeting. Genuine Reward was her first foal born following loss and difficulty conceiving at the age of 16. Click the box below to view other work from the Tony Leonard Collection.

Learn More

KyPQC Webinar Series

Registration is open for the next webinar on Friday, July 21 at 2-3 PM EDT. Ayesa Hilvano, MD will present “Management of All Patients at Risk for Persistent Opioid Use: Findings from SEH Obstetric Unit Protocols.” CEUs for nurses, community health workers, and social workers are available by signing up for Train course # 1111376.

Learn More

KyPQC Next Steps

- The MMR Task Force will meet on July 20 at 3-5 PM EDT.
- The MMRC is adding a social worker to improve the analysis of social determinants of health impacts in case reviews.
- The 2023 KyPQC Annual Meeting scheduled for August 10 is a one day in-person/hybrid event. More information and registration details are coming soon.
- The KyPQC Central Office is excited to welcome OJ Abah for the summer as part of a student intern program.

